My story

My double degree in Law, Criminology, and Public Prevention Policies marked from the outset my interest in criminal law, a branch of law with a direct impact on people's lives and which demands a rigorous, committed, and humane defense.

I have developed my professional career in criminal law firms in Barcelona, participating in various criminal proceedings and in the field of penitentiary law, which has allowed me to acquire solid practical experience and a deep respect for the responsibility that this specialty entails.

In order to offer a more comprehensive approach, I complemented my education with a Master's in Access to the Legal Profession and a Postgraduate Degree in Conflict Resolution, specializing in mediation, arbitration, and restorative justice.

I conceive our profession as an exercise of technical rigor, closeness, and commitment, always bearing in mind that behind every procedure there are people.
